

MOTOR VEHICLE INSPECTION JOB FAMILY

CAREER PATH

Motor Vehicle Inspector Chief (Level 1)

A Motor Vehicle Inspector Chief is accountable for assisting the commander in establishing and administering the Motor Vehicle Inspection Program through functional supervision and coordination of field activities, as well as manages a small number of resources (typically 0-4 employees). The employee also conducts scheduled and unscheduled inspections to determine if department personnel and inspection station owners and employees are operating within applicable rules, regulations, and procedures. The Motor Vehicle Inspector Chief also serves as a liaison with troop staff, headquarters personnel, and the public. Employee supervision includes hire recommendations, training, planning and assigning work, performance assessment, coaching, and progressive discipline. Supervision at this level also requires these employees to have the knowledge and skills to perform and review the work overseen. The employee in this position exercises considerable independent judgment and discretion, and work is performed under general supervision.
